

Senior Patrol Leader

- Runs all troop meetings with the help of the other boy leaders.
- Runs all troop outings with the help of the other boy leaders.
- Attends the monthly troop leaders council meeting with the Scoutmaster, ASPL, and PLs. (these meetings are held in my home and appear on the troop calendar)
- Is at the top of the phone tree. He is responsible for calling PL's and the ASPL when phone calls are to be made.
- Works with the Scoutmaster to handle any situations that may arise during a scouting activity.
- Set the example for other Scouts in his behavior, dress and attitude. The SPL must have a positive Scouting attitude.
- Must be very active. His attendance is as critical (if not more critical) than the Scoutmaster at all troop meetings and activities.
- He must be a self starter. The SPL must be willing to take the initiative to take care of anything he sees that may need his attention.

Assistant Senior Patrol Leader

- Fills in for the Senior patrol leader when he is absent
- Assists the senior patrol leader in running all troop meetings with the help of the other boy leaders.
- Assists the senior patrol leader in running all troop outings with the help of the other boy leaders.
- Attends the monthly troop leaders council meeting with the Scoutmaster, SPL, and PLs. (these meetings are held in my home and appear on the troop calendar)
- Works with the Scoutmaster to handle any situations that may arise during a scouting activity.
- Set the example for other Scouts in his behavior, dress and attitude. The ASPL must have a positive Scouting attitude.
- Must be very active. His attendance is as critical (if not more critical) than the Scoutmaster at all troop meetings and activities.
- He must be a self starter. The ASPL must be willing to take the initiative to take care of anything he sees that may need his attention.

Patrol Leader

- Runs the patrol at all troop meetings and outings.
- Set the example for other Scouts in his behavior, dress and attitude. The PL must have a positive Scouting attitude.
- Attends the monthly troop leaders council meeting with the Scoutmaster, SPL, and ASPL. (these meetings are held in my home and appear on the troop calendar)
- Works with the SPL to handle any situations that may arise during a scouting activity.
- He must be a self starter. The PL must be willing to take the initiative to take care of anything he sees that may need his attention.

Assistant Patrol Leader

- Fills in for the patrol leader when he is absent
- Helps the PL run the patrol at all troop meetings and outings.
- Set the example for other Scouts in his behavior, dress and attitude. The APL must have a positive Scouting attitude.
- Works with the PL to handle any situations that may arise during a scouting activity.
- He must be a self starter. The APL must be willing to take the initiative to take care of anything he sees that may need his attention.